It is important that you respond to all of these questions. The information will help your recommenders write a letter of recommendation for your applications.

Describe your academic and personal strengths:

What is your anticipated major? What is your career goal? Why?

What contribution can you make to the college that would make them want to accept your application?

Describe a rewarding high school experience:

Do you have volunteer/work experience? What have you learned from your volunteer/work experiences?

If you wrote your own recommendation, what would you write about yourself?

What are some of your hobbies or interests?

IS your academic record an accurate measure of your ability? Why or why not? Have there been any unique issues which may have affected your school performance that you would like your recommender to share in your letter?

List three adjectives to describe yourself:

How would your teachers describe you?

Anything else you want your recommenders to know about you:
